

Stromness Museum

The Stromness Museum exists to promote natural science, to preserve local history and to offer an enjoyable educational and informative experience to as large a range of people as possible. It is one of Scotland's oldest independent museums, dating back to 1837 and the formation of the Orkney Natural History Society.

Group sizes catered for	Max group size 20 people, though groups can be staggered throughout the day.
Minimum booking number	6
Parking	Limited parking for cars adjacent to the Museum. Coach parking available 15 minutes' walk away
Booking conditions	The Museum is closed in January. Booking required in advance for groups, please contact the Museum directly for details and booking forms: custodian@stromnessmuseum.org.uk
Commission	Groups of 12 or more receive a discounted entry per person of £6.50. Tour guides are free.

Gareth Squire
administrator@stromnessmuseum.org.uk

Stromness Museum
52 Alfred Street
Stromness
Orkney
KW16 3DH

01856 850025

www.stromnessmuseum.org.uk
<https://www.orkney.com/listings/stromness-museum>